STRATEGIC GOALS

Enhancing quality
teaching and learning

Providing inspiring personalised
learning opportunities

Develop strong engagement
with all stakeholders

STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

Enhance school wide consistency in our teaching practice using our MPS curriculum.
Improve teaching pedagogy to enhance all staff and student learning outcomes.

All ākonga will learn in their own way every day.
One size fits one culture.
Through consistent attendance and student teacher conversations grow student capacity and knowledge of their own learning.

Build educationally powerful connections and learning relationships to improve outcomes for all.
Refine our culturally responsive practice and improve community engagement.

ACTIONS

Provide timely relevant professional development.
Include all stakeholders in the development and implementation of our MPS curriculum.
Teachers will enable students to understand and articulate their current learning levels and next steps.
Integrate our co-inquiry growth tool.

Teachers will intentionally plan for personalised
learning opportunities.
Teachers will analyse and utilise data to identify next teaching steps.
Teachers will regularly plan workshops for students to discuss current learning level and next steps.
Plan and implement I-Excel, Maker Space, Endeavour Times, Passion Projects, and KC programmes to enhance learning and motivate student attendance.

Complete and Introduce co-constructed learner,
teacher, and parent dispositions.
Effective tools are used to engage our community to understand what learning practice looks like in our school.
Strengthen our communication and stake holder engagement through a variety of social media.
Implement feedback strategies with whanau which maximise student learning opportunities.

SUCCESS MEASURES

Our MPS curriculum meets the diverse learning needs of our community.
Our student achievement will reflect our proposed goals.

A strong culture of student agency defines our learning opportunities and is evident across all subject areas.
Through improved motivation and attendance MPS
Students will be confident connected individuals who can articulate their learning journey.

All stake holders feel welcome, respected, and valued in our learning community.
Our Rongohia Te Hau data will show that we have moved from relationships to learning relationships.
